A series of books which show learners what they get wrong and how to put it right. Opportunities ensures the most effective language learning possible, by focussing specifically on the needs of the secondary school learner, especially those preparing for school-leaving exams. Lifestyle is designed to meet the everyday language requirements of people who need English for work, travel and socialising. As well as dealing with how people communicate at work, it also helps learners interact effectively outside of the work environment, enabling them to 'get things done' in a variety of situations. A new addition to the Language in Use series for 1997 will be photocopiable progress tests for the Pre-intermediate level. They are to be used at regular intervals in the teaching programme, and can easily be managed in class time. There are four progress tests and a summary test which cover grammar, vocabulary, spelling, reading, writing and listening. Oral testing is also provided. The features which distinguish Language in Use: - flexibility The innovative Teacher's Book material allows teachers to tailor the material. - dual syllabus Alternating units on grammar and vocabulary. - clarity The clear organisation of the material makes the course attractive and easy to use - creativity Involving and stimulating tasks encourage personal input from learners. - self-study A workbook and self study cassette contain genuine self-study work. This is the pre-intermediate level of a four-level course for 13-15 year-olds. The course can be begun either at Starter Level (beginners/false beginners) or at Elementary Level (false beginners/elementary), before moving on to the third, pre-intermediate level. A test, answers with helpful tips, and a second test on the same topic in each four-page unit. Twenty topics in each book. Twenty 'Review' pages, leaving a mini reference book once all the tests have been completed. Written for self-study and also suitable for use in the classroom. With its combination of stimulating, informational content and systematic skills work, Language Leader is the ideal course to develop students' analytical and communicative skills. Each of the four levels comprises about 80 hours of class work, with additional time for the self-study work. The Teacher's Book contains all the pages from the Classroom Book, with interleaved teaching notes including optional activities to cater for different abilities. There is a video to accompany the Beginner, Pre-intermediate and Intermediate levels. Each video contains eight stimulating and entertaining short programmes, as well as a booklet of photocopiable activities. Free test material is available in booklet and web format for Beginner and Pre-intermediate levels. Visit www.cambridge.org/elt/liu or contact your local Cambridge University Press representative. New Snapshot is a revised edition of an English Language course which is written from a teenage viewpoint. It includes photostories, culture pages, projects and songs and provides graded exercises and a focus on writing skills in the Language Booster. 1000 pre-intermediate English Tests with dynamic online class.
